Budget supported from EJA Kosovo program (EUR):	EUR 113,103.50
Target groups:	LGBTIQ+
Geographical scope:	Kosovo wide
Summary of the grant:	Through this grant, the organization aims to empower LGBTIQ+ individuals across Kosovo by strengthening advocacy, community leadership, public awareness, and access to specialized health and psychosocial services. The initiative seeks to contribute to a more inclusive and rights-based society by improving institutional responsiveness and enabling LGBTIQ+ individuals to participate more actively in civic and democratic processes. Through policy advocacy efforts, structured dialogue with institutions, and the development of policy briefs, position papers, and recommendations, the organization will contribute to more inclusive policymaking. At the same time, CSGD will strengthen community empowerment through capacity-building activities, youth-led initiatives, public awareness campaigns, and visibility events that promote diversity, equality, and democratic participation.

	In parallel, the initiative will improve access to specialized psychosocial and sexual and reproductive health services for marginalized groups within the LGBTIQ+ community. A key component of the project is also the strengthening of organizational sustainability by enhancing CSGD’s internal monitoring, evaluation, and reporting systems, while further developing the capacities of its staff. Through this integrated approach—combining policy advocacy, community empowerment, public awareness, service provision, and institutional capacity development—the grant aims to contribute to lasting improvements in the protection, wellbeing, and social inclusion of LGBTIQ+ people in Kosovo.
