Summary of the grant:	This project aims to improve psychosocial well-being and strengthen human inclusion for people living in the Special Institute in Shtime through regular supportive visits and structured social, cultural, and creative activities. The intervention is based on the principle of civic engagement, creating safe spaces for interaction for residents facing long-term isolation. The main activities include: (1) organizing periodic supportive visits within the institution, (2) developing light social, creative, and sensory activities adapted to residents' needs, (3) providing training and ethical guidance for volunteers to ensure safe interaction, and (4) documenting reflective experiences for civic awareness purposes. The project will be implemented over 11 months with a budget of EUR 5,350.00, directly engaging volunteers and professionals to build sustainable connections between the community and this marginalized group.
