Total budget of the grant (EUR):	9,200.00 EUR
Budget supported from EJA Kosovo program (EUR):	9,200.00 EUR
Target groups:	• Women from municipalities with minority communities (including Serb, Bosniak, Turkish, Ashkali, Gorani, Egyptian and Roma communities) • Women with experience in accessing justice-related institutions • Institutional representatives, local media and the wider community
Geographical scope:	Leposavić/Leposaviq, Peja/Peć, Zubin Potok, Mitrovica Veriore/Severna Mitrovica and Gračanica/Gračanice.
Summary of the grant:	The grant aims to improve women's safety and access to justice in municipalities with minority communities in Kosovo. It will document women's lived experiences with justice-related institutions through confidential focus groups, identify key barriers, and develop practical recommendations for institutional improvement. The project will also facilitate structured dialogue with institutions, including police, courts, social welfare centres, municipalities and victim support/legal aid mechanisms, in order to strengthen responsiveness, coordination and trust.
