Summary of the grant:	The National Autism Association of Kosovo (ANAK) aims to strengthen the organization's capacity for advocacy and parental engagement through the development of a new program strategy that will be integrated into the 2025–2029 strategic plan. This initiative seeks to increase parental involvement in decision-making processes and ensure that key issues affecting families of autistic children and youth are addressed more effectively. The project will develop a structured advocacy program, creating an active group of parents to support ANAK in advocacy and fundraising efforts. Furthermore, the organization's digital presence will be expanded, and an internship program will be established to engage young people in supporting advocacy and awareness-raising activities.
