Summary of the grant:	The Organization for Children without Parental Care (OFAP) aims to ensure the continuity of psychosocial services for 60 children without parental care placed in alternative family care in the municipalities of Prishtina and Gjilan. As a result of the political situation and the blockage of public funds, vital services for the emotional and social well-being of these children are at risk of being interrupted. Through this emergency grant, OFAP will ensure the provision of psychological, pedagogical, and social support sessions over a three-month period. The objective is to protect children from trauma, further abandonment, and the risk of abuse, while guaranteeing continuous access to professional support and sustainable interinstitutional cooperation.
