EVALUATION OF PROPOSALS

Examination and evaluation of Tenders

Information relating to the examination, evaluation, and comparison of Proposals, and the recommendation of contract award, shall not be disclosed to tenderers or any other persons not officially concerned with such process, even after publication of the contract award.

KCSF will examine the proposals to determine whether they are complete, whether required information has been provided as underlined in the Bid document, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether proposals are generally in order. Eligibility and compliance to all the forms and documents would be the next level of evaluation. Only those Proposals which comply to the Eligibility Criteria will be taken up for further technical evaluation.

Two approaches shall be used in the evaluation of proposals: the Technical Evaluation Factors and the Cost Evaluation Factors.

Responsive tenderers/proposals will be evaluated and compared against the contract award criteria stated in this tender dossier. The economic operator having submitted the highest ranked the proposal according to the result will be awarded the contract.

Questions and Answers

Questions: Questions regarding the technical requirements of this Request for proposals may only be made electronically at the address listed on the RFP Invitation letter. Any verbal information received from KCSF employees or any other entity shall not be considered as a formal answer to any questions regarding this Request for Proposals.

You are reminded that throughout the process KCSF will continually assess all contact with the tenderers including compliance to the process, presentations and on-site representatives KCSF reserves the right at its sole discretion to disqualify without further consideration any submission that does not satisfy this basic requirement.

Responsive tenderers

The determination of the responsiveness of a Proposal by KCSF will be based on the content of the Proposal. A substantially responsive tender/proposal is, if it meets all terms, conditions, ToR and other tender requirements without material deviation, reservation or omission.

A tenderer/proposal is considered to be responsive when:

- a. complies administratively with the qualification requirements of the tender dossier;
- b. conforms to all the terms, conditions, TOR, and other requirements of the tender dossier without material deviation, reservation, or omission.
- c. the economic operator has submitted all submission documents and meets the selection criteria set out in this tender dossier.

If a tenderer/proposal is not substantially responsive, it shall be rejected by KCSF and may not subsequently be made responsive by the tenderer by correction of the material deviation, reservation, or omission.

Briefings for Unsuccessful Participants

KCSF intends to offer a feedback session to every tenderer submitting an unsuccessful proposal, KCSF reserves the right to control the format and content of any such briefing, and to limit it in any way believed by KCSF to be appropriate (which includes, in exceptional circumstances, the right to refuse a briefing without giving any reason for doing so).
