Summary of the grant:	Our goal is to develop capacities for youth with less opportunities to become agents of positive change through innovative methods of education and long-term volunteering. Youth potential in Kosovo is under-exploited due to an education system that fails to prepare them for the 21st century society and labor market. Youth from marginalized areas (due to socio-economic, gender, ethnic circumstances) find it virtually impossible to 'change their stars' and have a better life than their parents. Our goal is to achieve these specific results: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Educating and empowering youth - through Capacity Building programs - camps, trainings, educational excursions, and international exchanges 2. Long-term volunteering - TOKA's main program to increase citizen engagement and participation is through Educational Volunteering Clubs, which are currently organized in more than 10 municipalities in Kosovo.

Advocacy for better policies and practices for youth development - including activities such as the establishment of the Kosovo Association of Educational Volunteer Organizations, the monthly TV column, measuring the impact of our programs in partnership with the Faculty of Psychology, conferences, and project inaugurations.
