Summary of the grant:	“Improving the political representation of LGBT+ people in Kosovo” is a six-month project seeking to improve public accountability of elected officials and parties in Kosovo regarding LGBT+ rights, and to raise LGBT+ citizens' capacity to lobby for progressive policies that respond to their needs. The main activities of the project include the mapping of key institutional stakeholders’ and Kosovar parties’ positions on LGBT+ rights, publishing interviews with a selected pool of institutional representatives with an eye to LGBT+ policy-making and producing Kosovo’s first LGBT+ voter analysis. The outputs of the project will be disseminated online.
