| Summary of the grant: | The FILMITRO project aims to advocate for and address the challenges of public spaces in Mitrovica by engaging young professionals, students, and the local community. Through film as a documentary and advocacy tool, the project will reflect the needs and experiences of citizens, increasing awareness and cultivating a sense of belonging to public spaces. The main outcomes include strengthening community and local institutional engagement, building the capacities of young people in filmmaking, and utilizing film as a tool for social change. Key activities include project research and planning, organizing a filmmaking workshop, film screenings and public discussions, implementing tactical urban interventions, and a final presentation. The project will be |
